

FAQ

What does it cost?

Every project is different. For example, a 10,000-word dissertation may take longer to proofread than a 10,000-word novella. And projects in PowerPoint or PDF format take longer to proofread than texts in Word.

I may need to see your text before giving you a quote. However, to give you an idea, I have added my proofreading, copyediting, and beta reading guide and set prices.
